REPORT

OF

Superintending School Committee March 1, 1886.

DISTRICT NO. 1.

Summer term—Miss Annie Barton's school opened favorably, but at my second visit only three scholars were present. Fair improvement made. Winter term taught by Miss Addie Walker. There was no decline of interest, but rather a steady advance in everything that makes a school successful and profitable.

DISTRICT NO. 2.

Summer and fall terms taught by Miss Clara Barton. Her experience in teaching told with grand effect. Winter term, under the instruction of Mr. Will. E. Davis, who has few equals in the teacher's calling. More such, our schools need, with good order and improvement.

DISTRICT NO. 3.

Miss Sadie Blanchard was teacher. This school was successful; the exercises indicated that good progress had been made. Fall and winter terms taught by Miss Estelle Rowell. Her instruction was accurate and thorough, and good improvement was made.

DISTRICT NO. 4.

Summer term, Miss Ella Emerson won general approval and showed a very good faculty for imparting instruction. Fall term, Miss Etta Rowell proved herself one of the best of teachers. That done was well done. All was praiseworthy.

DISTRICT NO. 5.

Summer and Fall terms. Miss Sophia Stockwell was employed as teacher two years in succession. Satisfactory results attended her earnest and faithful teaching.

DISTRICT NO. 6.

Miss Nellie Putnam, teacher; term of nine weeks. Her first effort in teaching was attended with grand success.

ROLL OF HONOR.

Dist. No. 1, First term, Cora M. Kempton, Ethel M. Kempton. Dist. No. 2, First term, Etta Bartlett, Della Rawson, Florence Sawyer, Florence Staniels, Willie Loverin, Dewit Barton, Ora Barton, Leon Cooper, Ned Loverin, Joe Partridge, Leon Wright. Absent on account of sickness—Ruth Barton, Ethel Hall, Annie Sawyer, Frank Leeds. Fall term—Ned Loverin. Absent on account of sickness—Morris Hall. Winter term—Rufus Barton, Lester Blanchard, Oscar Ide, Ned Loverin, Ned Partridge, Leon Wright, Arthur Staniels, Willie Loverin, Albert Blanchard, Etta Bartlett, Idella Blanchard, Sybil Blanchard, Della Rawson, Ruie Kidder, Gertie Philbrick. Dist. No. 4, Fall term, Belle Young. Dist. No. 5, Summer term, Flora Hurd, Jennie Hurd, Edith Lombard. Absent on account of sickness—Alice Lombard, Carrie Lombard.

REMARKS.

I am glad to report that the past year has been one of general prosperity for our schools, and a very gratifying interest in them has been manifest in the increased number of visitors, especially parents of the pupils. I trust this interest will continue to grow, for upon the public schools, which offer free education to the children of all our citizens, largely rests the future of our town, for culture and intelligence.

ELIZABETH L. FOWLER, Supt. School Com.
